

DRAW YOUR SOURCE OF LIGHT

If you were a source of light, what kind of source of light would you be? Take the first image that comes to mind. Do not analyze it.

Draw this source of light below. There are no right or wrong answers.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Look at your drawing and answer each question from the perspective of the source of light. Write freely and openly.

1

Tell me about this source of light.

What is it like? What are its main qualities?

2

Where does it get its energy?

Is it a source of energy itself, or does it need to receive energy or recharge from somewhere else? If yes, from where?

3

How far does this source of light shine?

What is within the range of its light?

4

What happens if this source of light goes out?

What changes around it?

5

What is the main task of this source of light?

What is it here to do?

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Look at your drawing and answer each question from the perspective of the source of light. Write freely and openly.

6

What role does it perform?

7

How important is this role?

How important does this role feel to the source of light?

8

Does it like this role?

Is it satisfied with it?

9

What influence does this source of light have on the reality around it?

What changes because it is there?

10

What dreams or desires does this source of light have?

11

Would it like to change anything or leave everything as it is?

What, if anything, would it want to change?
